

Are you 25 or under?

You are part of
GENERATION
TEN BILLION

for a sustainable future

unemployment
water shortages
green spaces
hurricanes
flooding
droughts
wars
conflict
energy supply
global warming
deforestation
housing
congestion
famines
overcrowding
population
climate change
biodiversity loss
extinctions
public services

Turn over to find out more...

In 2060, when you will be 70 or younger, the population is projected to reach ten billion

If you are interested in what this means for you and the world...

Connect with Population Matters on social media

And join us to help us raise awareness of the massive challenge to sustainability presented by further population growth

If you are under 19, membership is FREE | If you are 19–25 it is half-price

www.populationmatters.org

Population Matters campaigns for smaller families, women's rights, improved family planning access, environmental conservation and sustainable consumption. Regd. charity 1114109.135–137 Station Road, London E4 6AG, UK.

Patrons include Sir David Attenborough, Jane Goodall, James Lovelock, Chris Packham, and Jonathon Porritt